throng saw Africander beat Heno and Waterboy for the Saratoga cup of $9,000 at the racing park to-day. The track was fat, as was evidenced by the fact that a track record was made by Africander, while a track record was equaled by Mr. Whitney's Reliable, the winner of the first race. Hermis, Irish Lad and Circus had been passed him. Fuller rode Africander in fine style, winning in a hard drive in the last tifteen lengths behind.

.The Grand Uniou stakes of $10,000 was won easily by Highball, a 12-to-1 shot. Crown Prince and Palm Bearer were the first to show, losing their lead to Dimple on the turn. Highball had no trouble in passing

The Shittelah steeplechase was classed by competent judges as one of the finest jumplog races run in recent years. Lavator, with whom his owner, J. W. Colt, had dered to win, had it out with Land of Clover in the stretch and won by a head. 1:08 The time was 62-5 seconds better than that of the winner last year. Special to the Indianapolis Journal. ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 22.-Bailey weakened in the third inning of to-day's game and Indianapolis pounded out what looked a winning lead, but Williams, who complained of a bad arm before starting, lost control of his flinging wing in the Saints' part of the round, and before Newlin could

Jumping high in the air he stabbed the drive and it bounced toward second base. Fox dived and caught the falling ball, but he fell as he caught it and the ball roiled out of his hands. Wheeler followed Flournoy with a drive over the home-run section of the fence and the Saints took the lead. They increased it in the eighth, when Shannon and Jackson singled and scored on Schaefer's third two-sacker of the day. Indianapolis got its first tally on two singles. Kihm batted the first safe one and Fox forced him at second. Hogriever hit for a base and Fox went to third. Woodruff hit to Schaefer, forcing Hogriever at second and Fox came in on the play. Williams cracked open the Indians' busy round with a two-sacker to left. Kihm singled and Fox duplicated Williams's drive and the pitcher scored. Hogriever basted a long single to left and Kihm and Fox tallied. Hogriever went to third on Woodruff's single and scored while Marcan was going out, Huggins to Wheeler. Heydon and Coulter went out on infield plays. The Indians made a hard bid for the game in the ninth, a slump in the Saints' fielding helping them out. With two gone, Kihm singled and Fox sent him around with a double. Hogriever singled through Geier and Fox got to third. He scored on Wood-

SAW MAKERS WIN EASILY

ATKINS TEAM TAKES A GAME FROM LAYCOCK CROWD.

Brickley, for the Winners, Plays Star Fielding Game and Hits Well -The Score.

Outclassed at every point the Laycock baseball team went down in defeat at Washington Park yesterday afternoon before the Atkins team, who won by a score of 14 to 2. The contest was a match game, as the Laycocks have the pennant in the Wholesale Manufacturers' League cinched. Over a thousand rooters were on hand, and the cheering was one feature. The Atkins followers were reinforced by a corps of "musicians" with drums, saws and various other instruments, upon which was produced a bediam of noise. While the game was one-sided, it was not devoid of interest, owing to the rivalry of the two teams and the gameness of the partisans of the Laycocks, who, although badly worsted, vied with their opponents in yelling until the last man was out. The Laycock team seemed to be a sure winner, as it had won from Atkins 9 to 2 not long ago. The loosers started out well, but it was the old story of the "sure thing that Bres'han, cf.4 1 1 0 0 Williams, s.5 0 5 3 1 was never heard from" and the Atkins soon left their opponents at the post.

This was the first hint of Atkins' form, but in the next inning the saw works team showed that it was in the game to win and the Laycocks could not get a man around until the sixth. Brickley, in left field for Atkins, was the star, making a sensational catch of a long drive, stealing five bases and making four hits out of five times at bat. Bryant's onehand catch was also a feature. Both pitchers did well, but the aerial trip of the Lay-
